RESPECTFULLY PRESENTING PETITION FOR ACTION OF COURT FOR CAUSE AS FOLLOWS:

Violation #1: Mr. Urbina is alleged to be in violation of his pretrial release conditions by deviating from his approved location monitoring schedule on April 25, 2021.

Conditions of pretrial release were reviewed and signed by Mr. Urbina on December 15, 2020, acknowledging an understanding of his requirements to include special conditions number 5 and 6. On this same date, the location monitoring program rules and expectations were also reviewed and signed by Mr. Urbina, acknowledging his understanding of the program.

On April 25, 2021, this officer reviewed Mr. Urbina's daily activities via the BI Total Access Program. Mr. Urbina was granted permission to leave his home at 10 a.m. and travel to Lowe's Home Improvement store in Union Gap, Washington, to purchase wood. He was directed to return to his home by 12 p.m. At approximately 11 a.m. Mr. Urbina was observed at 718 South 6th Street in Yakima, which is the Mercado Latino convenience store. Mr. Urbina was in the store approximately 10 minutes. He returned home at approximately 11:20 a.m. This officer made telephone contact with Mr. Urbina asking about the above-noted deviation. Mr. Urbina stated his mother had been sick all night and she requested he go to the convenience store to get her some medication. This officer reminded Mr. Urbina he was not approved to deviate from his schedule and there are other members residing in his household that could have gone to the store for his mother. Mr. Urbina acknowledged his restrictions and advised he would remind his mother of his location monitoring requirements.
